September Recap!

What I've done, and what is upcoming.

by Cheeky Charlie on October 4th

September was a month filled with memorable experiences, even if it didn't go exactly as planned. I spent most of my time hosting in Halifax, which turned out to be a wonderful decision. Although I had intended to go on a tour, I ultimately decided against it due to a lack of pre-bookings and not feeling my best. Sometimes, it's important to listen to our bodies and adjust accordingly!

One of the highlights was two overnight duo dates with my lovely friend Kimmy and a charming gentleman. The first outing took a bit of an unexpected turn when I had to leave early due to motion sickness during a boat activity. But we made up for it on our second date with a fun round of mini putt, as well as delicious food and drink! There was no lack of laughs on this date!

I also enjoyed a delightful lunch at The Italian Market! I had never been to this establishment before and was thoroughly impressed. My food was delicious, and I tried and loved brio!

September 16th was Sex Worker Pride Day - a meaningful occasion for our community to come together and uplift one another. It's a powerful reminder of our resilience and the importance of visibility. Alongside this celebration, I received a new recommendation on Lyla, which is always encouraging and appreciated.

You guys know that I love to meet up with other companions.. usually over food/drink. I had a lovely lunch in September with my friend Cici at Salt + Ash, and I attended the film Paying For It with Aurora Fuego at the Atlantic International Film Festival. The film offers a powerful perspective on the experiences of sex workers, and it's definitely worth a watch!

I am excited to share that I released a new product review for the Thrusting Dildo, which was so so fun to test! I think this might be a new favourite toy of mine. Check out the product and read the full review here:

Additionally, for my subscribers, there's an exclusive product review video available for purchase through PPV on my OnlyFans. This video might just be one of my best yet, so if you're a new subscriber interested in grabbing it, send me a private message, and I'll get it to you!

October Upcoming!

Which ways are you keen to keep up with me?

As we dive into October, I want to give you a little peek at what's coming up this month! With midterms and papers piling up for my courses, I'll primarily be sticking around Halifax. It's going to be a busy month academically, but I'm still looking to fill in parts of my schedule with you!

I anticipate hosting only in Halifax this month, with plans to take some time off from October 29th until an undetermined date in the first week of November. Before my little break, I've specifically arranged some weekend availability, along with my usual Monday-to-Friday schedule. You can check out the calendar on the booking page of my website!

I am currently in the midst of testing another product from Funzze, and I anticipate having the product review out by the end of next week! Happy product testing to me!

In the spirit of Halloween, I'm planning on releasing some new amateur costume content later in the month! I'm still on the lookout for a new sexy costume this year, so if you have any suggestions, I'd love to hear them. Plus, I'll be sharing some throwback photos from my purge shoot that you won't want to miss! And those pics in the naughty school girl outfit.. It's a very good month to be on my fan site!

If you're interested in a Halloween or costume-themed live stream on my OnlyFans, make sure to check out my page and respond to my poll on my pinned!! I'm eager to hear your thoughts!

And let's not forget about those cosy autumn vibes! I'd be keen to go on some autumn-inspired dates with you. Whether it's a trip to a pumpkin patch, a haunted house, or any other seasonal adventure, I'm here for it! Let's get hot & spooky!
